FUNDRAISER FOR VENICE ARTS — Actress Alyssa Milano joined Venice Arts to host a photographic exhibit as a fundraiser for Venice Arts and for Nkosi' Haven, a South-Africa-based charity that provides care and education to HIV- and AIDS-afflicted mothers and children.

At the event Saturday, August 10th, at Track 16 in Santa Monica were (above, from the left) Milano, actress Ellen Burstyn and Venice Arts member Michael Linarte, 11.

The exhibit was titled "Picturing a New South Africa, An Exploration of Culture and Hope" and included photos donated by Burstyn.

Milano and Venice Arts plan a photographic trip to South Africa in December.
